4. I informed [CASTRO] that effective with the [CALLIKAK take] that will be received 11 October, the [conversations in the Russian language] will be translated on a summary basis. I explained that because of the extra time needed for the translation job on the [Russian] it would take on the average an additional 24 hours to get the material from the [CALLIKAK people]. I stated further that during the first week a reasonably satisfactory translation job could be expected. I added that after this week an individual whose [Russian is native] will be back on the job and will be able to provide translations on a word for word basis (i.e., in full text) as the need therefor is suggested by the [substance of the conversation.]
